

My whole family listens to KLOVE on 89.5FM on a daily basis. It provides us with news and with the kind of music we like to listen to. When the vast majority of information sources are negative, we need KLOVE to maintain a reasonable balance of positive and helpful information. If KLOVE were to go off the air in our community it would be a great loss.